NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS MONTH

This is especially timely right now. Here are many excellent sources for understanding and being prepared for disasters of all kinds, as well as for dealing with feelings the students of all ages may be experiencing in the face of hurricanes.

FLU

Scrub Club
The Scrub Club® is an interactive website that offers free materials to raise awareness about the benefits of hand washing to fight germs and prevent illness. The fun, Web-based experience is complete with educational material, music, games and cartoon "Webisodes.". Available in French, English and Spanish.

FEMA for Kids
Resources for Parents and Teachers. Curriculum and Activities.
http://www.fema.gov/kids/.

Facing Fear (gr. K-12)
Facing Fear was developed to address a demand by educators and caregivers of children for materials to help children cope in uncertain times. The curriculum is a supplement to Masters of Disaster™, children's natural hazard safety curriculum. The format and components are similar, including ready-to-go lesson plans, activities and demonstrations that can be incorporated within core subject areas.

Lessons are aligned with national health, social studies, and language arts standards. You do have to register, but materials are downloadable and free. http://www.redcross.org/portal/site/en/menuitem.d229a5f06620c6052b1ecfbf43181aa0/?vgnextoid=749bf655c099b110VgnVCM10000089f0870aRCRD&vgnextfmt=default.

Ready Kids
